 Name: _____

Mitten Match

Every mitten has a partner: a big letter and its small letter. Find each pair and color both mittens the same color!

💡 For grown-ups: why it works. These pairs were picked because the big and small letters look different (A and a, G and g, R and r). Children who can match them are learning that two shapes can be the same letter, which is essential for reading real books.