 Name: _____

👀 Quick Look! How Many Dots?

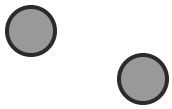

Look fast, then cover the dots with your hand. How many were there? Circle the number. Then peek to check!

1

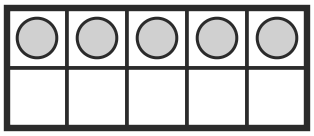

(2) (3) (4)

2

(2) (3) (4)

3

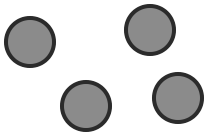

(4) (5) (7)

4

(4) (5) (7)

5

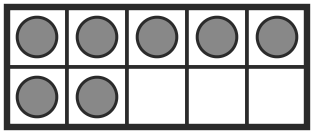

(3) (4) (6)

6

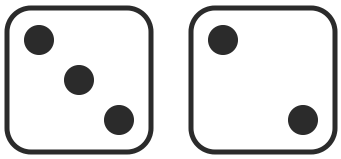

(4) (5) (6)

7

(5) (7) (8)

8

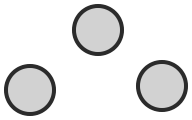

(3) (5) (6)

9

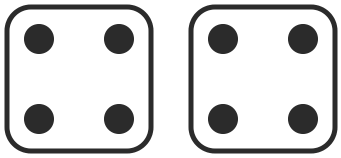

(3) (4) (6)

10

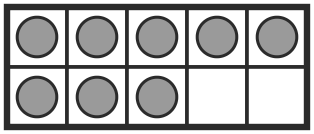

(1) (3) (4)

11

(6) (7) (8)

12

(7) (8) (10)

💡 For grown-ups: why it works. Seeing a small amount at a glance without counting is called subitizing. It is a strong predictor of later math success. Covering the dots stops one-by-one counting. Bigger amounts are shown as two small groups (4 and 4), which is how adding starts.